Graduate Student Project Grade Worksheet

Student: ____________________________________________________________

Project: ____________________________________________________________

Abstract: ..................................................................................(0 – 5 pts.) _____
(Concise summary of research project and major findings provided?)

Background/Research: .............................................................(0 – 15 pts.) _____
(Project background introduced well, quality research effort demonstrated?)

Data Interpretation: .................................................................(0 – 20 pts.) _____
(Results are relevant and presented in a concise, coherent manner?)

Conclusions: .................................................................(0 – 15 pts.) _____
(Conclusions are sound, supported by the data?)

Recommendations: .............................................................(0 – 15 pts.) _____
(Recommendations are reasonable/appropriate?)

Organization: .................................................................(0 – 10 pts.) _____
(Paper is well organized?)

Presentation: .................................................................(0 – 10 pts.) _____
(Quality and usefulness of figures, tables?)

Writing: .................................................................(0 – 5 pts.) _____
(Well written, style is professional?)

Subtotal (Paper) .............................................................(95 pts. max.) _____

Oral Presentation: .............................................................(0 – 5 pts.) _____
(Succinct, major findings were communicated?)

Total Grade (Paper + Oral) .............................................. (100 pts. max.) _____

Grader 1: ____________________________________________________________

Grader 2: ____________________________________________________________